

Jason M. Romrell
Chief Legal Counsel
Budget Van Lines Inc.

Jason M. Romrell is President and Chief Legal Counsel at Budget Van Lines Inc. and is principally responsible for advising the company on a range of legal issues including intellectual property, human resources, compliance, corporate governance and multistate litigation. Mr. Romrell also advises and coaches work groups on best practices, employee relations, the intersection of technology and law, customer service and other issues, all with an optimistic outlook and a healthy sense of humor...and the occasional tweet. Additionally, he leads training sessions for the company's sales teams, fostering a positive and customer-first attitude amongst the sales and customer service representatives.

Mr. Romrell has represented clients have ranged from multistate and international technology companies to small businesses and individual clients. His primary practice areas have included technology, contracts, real estate, corporate and small business law. Along with his legal experience, Mr. Romrell brings a wealth of business knowledge to his positions, giving his clients not only accurate and timely legal advice, but a balance of real-world perspective and practical solutions. He has coached solo practitioners and multi-national corporations in areas such as project planning, forecasting, sales strategies, goal setting, time management and a host of other business topics.

Education

University of Idaho College of Law, cum laude, J.D.
Idaho State University, B.S.

Admissions

California
Idaho

Los Angeles, CA

T: 646-873-6676

E: jason.r@budgetvanlines.com

Twitter: @upyourbiz